Description

One of a kind, mid-century silver tea set made by artist, designer and silversmith - George Albert Hicks.

The set comprises a hand-hammered teapot with ebonised wood handle and finial, a sugar bowl and milk jug, also with a carved ebonised handle.

All pieces are hand raised, and of a good, heavy gauge of silver. With a capacity of the two pints, enough for approximately seven to eight cups of tea, and most importantly, pours perfectly.
