

Emmett & White
ANTIQUES & INTERIORS

Early 18th century Normandy faience tin-glazed carnation plate

Sold

REF: 5623

Depth: 2 cm (0.8")

Diameter: 22 cm (8.7")

Description

Early 18th century Normandy faience tin-glazed carnation plate, circa 1720.

The Normandy faience tin-glazed carnation plate is a decorative French ceramic piece, renowned for its vibrant, hand-painted carnation motifs. Produced in Normandy during the 17th and 18th centuries, it features a glossy, white tin glaze that enhances its vivid colours and intricate floral patterns, showcasing the region's skilled ceramic artistry.