

Mid-century Ditchling pottery bowl

£60

REF: 5431

Height: 1 cm (0.4")

Diameter: 22 cm (8.7")

Description

Mid-century Ditchling pottery bowl, unknown maker NB. Studio pottery bowl painted with vines, circa 1960.

Ditchling pottery, emerging in the early 20th century, is celebrated for its distinctive hand-thrown designs and vibrant glazes. Produced in Ditchling, Sussex, this pottery reflects Arts and Crafts principles, emphasising craftsmanship and organic forms. Known for its earthy textures and rich colours, Ditchling pottery embodies a unique blend of tradition and creativity.