

Imperial Russian silver cloisonné enamel salt by Vasilij Dmtrev, circa 1895

£475

Description

A stunning Imperial Russian silver cloisonné enamel salt by Vasilij Dmtrev, cira 1895.

Vasilij Dmitriev, a notable silversmith of Imperial Russia, was renowned for his exquisite silver craftsmanship in the 19th century. His pieces, often featuring intricate designs and high-quality workmanship, reflect the opulence and elegance of the Russian aristocracy. Dmitriev's work remains highly regarded for its artistry and historical significance.