Description

An Orrefors glass bud vase designed by Sven Palmquist, circa 1960.

Sven Palmquist (1926-2013) was a renowned Swedish glass designer celebrated for his innovative contributions to modern Scandinavian glass art. He worked extensively with Orrefors, where he developed revolutionary techniques like "Fuga," a method for creating elegant, free-flowing glass forms through centrifugal force.

Palmquist's designs often emphasised simplicity, organic shapes, and functionality, blending artistry with craftsmanship. His work remains iconic, reflecting the timeless beauty of mid-20th-century Scandinavian design, earning him global acclaim and enduring recognition.
