18ct gold diamond and sapphire bar brooch set with three old mine cut diamonds and two Ceylon sapphires

£875

Description

18ct gold bar brooch set with three old mine cut diamonds and two Ceylon sapphires, circa 1920.

Ceylon sapphires, originating from Sri Lanka, are prized for their exceptional clarity and vibrant blue hues. Known for their brilliance and colour intensity, these sapphires often exhibit a rich, deep blue with minimal inclusions. Valued in fine jewellery, they symbolise elegance and are celebrated for their timeless beauty and rarity.
