

George III hallmarked silver coin purse

£145

Description

George III hallmarked silver coin purse with chain-mail bag. Birmingham 1817 by Joseph Willmore.

Georgian silver coin purses, crafted during the 18th and early 19th centuries, feature ornate designs and detailed engravings. Often compact and practical, they combine functionality with artistry. These purses, sometimes with intricate closures and decorative embellishments, reflect the period's craftsmanship and elegance, serving both as functional accessories and decorative items.