

Pair of white gold, diamond and pearl earrings

£1,200

REF: 6111

Description

A pair of Art Deco white gold, diamond and pearl pendant earrings.

Pearls are unique gemstones that can improve with wear. The natural oils from human skin can enhance a pearl's lustre and colour over time, maintaining their beauty and sheen. Regular wear helps keep pearls hydrated, preventing them from drying out and cracking, thus preserving their delicate surface and radiant appearance.
