

Single progressing stand of polished amethyst beads

£145

Description

A single progressing strand of polished amethyst beads with a 9ct yellow gold clasp, circa 1920.

Amethyst beads, prized for their rich purple hue, are commonly used in jewellery for their beauty and spiritual significance. These semiprecious gemstones offer a range of colours from light lavender to deep violet. Their natural lustre and elegance make them popular in necklaces, bracelets, and earrings, symbolising tranquility and clarity.
