

Six Elkington silver plate goblets

£125

Description

A set of six Elkington & Co silver plate wine goblets with engraved family crest, circa 1900.

Elkington & Co., established in 1838, was a prominent British manufacturer known for its high-quality silver plate and electroplated items. Renowned for their craftsmanship and innovation in electroplating, their products included elegant tableware and decorative pieces. Elkington & Co. remains influential in the history of fine silverware.