

Three piece silver tea set

£795

Description

A very stylish 1930s Art Deco three piece silver tea set by Deakin & Francis with fruitwood handles. Hallmarked for Birmingham 1938.

Deakin & Francis is a prestigious British jeweller and silversmith, founded in 1786 and based in Birmingham's historic Jewellery Quarter. Renowned for its exquisite craftsmanship, the company is one of the oldest family-owned jewellery businesses in England, now managed by the seventh generation of the Deakin family.

Deakin & Francis products epitomise British elegance and heritage, often appealing to collectors and connoisseurs world wide. The brand also produces fine accessories, signet rings, and bespoke commissions, maintaining its legacy of luxury.