Description

A good Victorian William Comyns heavy gauge silver trinket box with ornate repoussé work, retailed by Thornhill & Co of Bond Street. Hallmarked for London 1889.

William Comyns was a renowned English silversmith, active from the mid-19th to early 20th century. His firm, William Comyns & Sons, was known for producing high-quality, ornate silverware, particularly decorative items such as mirror frames, dressing table sets, and tableware.

Established in London, Comyns' work often featured repoussé and chased designs, reflecting Victorian and Edwardian tastes. His pieces remain highly collectible today, admired for their craftsmanship and elegance.
