

17th century tapestry fragment cushion o

£100

REF: 4915

Height: 36 cm (14.2")

Width: 30 cm (11.8")

Description

17th century tapestry fragment cushion of floral design, circa 1650.

In the 17th century, tapestry weaving flourished across Europe, particularly in France and Flanders. These intricately woven textiles depicted historical, biblical, and mythological scenes, often commissioned by royalty and nobility. Renowned workshops, like those in Gobelins, Paris, produced masterpieces that adorned palaces, showcasing power and wealth while preserving artistic heritage.