Description

Cecil Beaton photograph of Audrey Hepburn for the cover of Vogue, 1964, from the Sotheby's Beaton Archive. Label to reverse.

Cecil Beaton (1904-1980) was a renowned British photographer and designer known for his iconic fashion photography and glamorous portraits. His work, which includes notable portraits of celebrities and royalty, combined artistic flair with technical precision. Beaton also excelled in stage design and costume design, leaving a lasting impact on visual culture.

His photograph of Audrey Hepburn, taken in the 1950s, captures the actress's timeless elegance and charm. Renowned for its sophisticated composition and Beaton's signature style, the portrait highlights Hepburn's grace and iconic beauty, solidifying her status as a fashion and cinematic icon in mid-20th century photography.
