

19th century crocodile skin vanity case

£475

Description

A fine quality 19th century tan crocodile skin vanity case by J Mason, Trunk Makers. The fitted interior contains a number of silver vanity items, circa 1890

J. Mason, Trunk Makers were established in the 19th century and specialised in crafting high-quality travel trunks and luggage. Known for their durability and craftsmanship, these trunks often featured robust leather exteriors and brass fittings.