

1920's French bronze sculpture of two antelope on a black and green onyx base

£1,250

Description

A 1920's French bronze sculpture of two antelope by Long Fils on a black and green art deco onyx base. Signed.

Long Fils bronze, produced by the French foundry Long Fils, is renowned for its high-quality bronze sculptures and castings. Established in the 19th century, Long Fils specialised in creating intricate and durable bronze pieces, including statues and decorative objects. Their work is characterised by meticulous craftsmanship and attention to detail, reflecting the elegance and sophistication of the era. Long Fils bronze pieces are highly regarded for their artistic and historical value, continuing to be sought after by collectors and enthusiasts.