

Early Victorian cut glass port decanter

£35

REF: 5753

Height: 27 cm (10.6")

Diameter: 12 cm (4.7")

Description

An early Victorian cut glass port decanter with blown and faceted stopper, circa 1840.

Port decanters are designed specifically for serving port wine, featuring elegant shapes that allow for proper aeration and sediment separation. Often crafted from fine glass or crystal, they enhance the presentation and flavour of port. Their stylish designs reflect the sophistication of wine service, elevating both formal and informal occasions.