

Pair of late 19th century onion-form decanters

£75

REF: 6174

Height: 30 cm (11.8")

Diameter: 15 cm (5.9")

Description

A pair of late 19th century onion-form decanters etched with grape vines.

Onion-form decanters, with their distinctive round, bulbous shape and narrow neck, blend functional elegance with artistic flair. Popular in the 17th and 18th centuries, these decanters are designed for efficient pouring and aeration. Their unique silhouette makes them visually striking, adding a touch of historical charm to any table setting.