

F & F Felgar platinum emerald cabochon and diamond ring

£1,200

Description

F & F Felgar platinum cabochon emerald and diamond Art Deco ring, circa 1925.

F & F Felger Jewelry Company, established in 1911 in Newark, New Jersey, was a distinguished American jewellery design house renowned for its exceptional craftsmanship. Operating from 42 Marshall St. between 1922 and 1934, and later from 480 Washington St. between 1943 and 1950, the company supplied exquisite pieces to prestigious retailers such as Tiffany & Co., Cartier, and J.E. Caldwell.

Their creations, marked with the hallmark "FFF", are celebrated for their fine materials and unique designs, often featuring intricate details and a blend of gold and platinum settings. Today, F & F Felger's vintage jewellery remains highly sought after by collectors and connoisseurs for its timeless elegance and superior quality.