

René Boivin French table cut sapphire tank ring

Sold

Description

A rare René Boivin French tank ring in silver with a large table cut sapphire, French assay marks.

René Boivin (1864-1917) was a celebrated French jeweller renowned for his innovative and bold designs. Establishing the Maison René Boivin in 1890, he broke from traditional styles, favouring sculptural, nature-inspired pieces and striking geometric forms.

After his passing, his wife, Jeanne Boivin, further elevated the brand, collaborating with talented female designers like Suzanne Belperron. Boivin's work is distinguished by exceptional craftsmanship and originality, appealing to sophisticated clientele and cementing his legacy in fine jewellery.

UK Ring Size: N