

Victorian yellow gold diamond and amethyst pendant

Sold

Description

A Victorian yellow gold pendant set with an old mine cut diamond and oval amethyst on a gold chain, circa 1880.

Old mine cut diamonds, popular from the 18th to early 20th centuries, feature a cushion shape with a high crown and deep pavilion. Known for their vintage charm, these diamonds exhibit a warm, romantic sparkle with fewer facets compared to modern cuts, showcasing unique craftsmanship and historical elegance.
