Description

A charming 20th-century silver photograph frame, decorated with a delightful collection of good-luck symbols and bearing London hallmarks. Both decorative and practical, it brings a warm sense of optimism and character to a desk, mantelpiece, bedside table, or dressing room.

The silver surround is embellished with traditional talismans associated with luck, prosperity, and protection, giving the frame a playful yet refined appearance. Its gently reflective surface enhances the photograph within, while the symbolic decoration makes it a particularly thoughtful choice for displaying a cherished family portrait, a wedding photograph, or a treasured memento.

Hallmarked in London, the frame carries the reassuring marks of British silver craftsmanship and makes a lovely addition to a collection of small silver, vanity pieces, or decorative objects. It would also make an engaging and personal gift for a birthday, housewarming, wedding, or new arrival.

Supplied with a suitably charming random cat photograph, ready to bring instant personality to its new home-or to be replaced with a photograph of your own.
