Canteen set of Ribbon Reed & Oakleaf sterling silver cutlery for 12

Walker & Hall

Sold

Description

Comprehensive set of sterling silver cutlery in the Ribbon, Reed & Oakleaf pattern for 12 people, including the original knives, all fitted in a lined, three-drawer wooden canteen. Double struck - meaning that the pattern is created on both sides of the pieces - in a heavy gauge of silver, the set is in excellent and original condition.

The knives are fitted with stainless steel blades soldered to hollow silver handles - the finest quality knife construction - making them suitable for cleaning in the dishwasher

The "ribbon, reed & oak leaf" pattern is a variation of classic European cutlery designs, combining elements from the enduring English Reed & Ribbon and King's patterns. The design elements date back to the late 18th and early 19th centuries, a time when elaborate, ornate styles became popular in aristocratic and later middle class dining.

This lovely silver cutlery service comprises:

- 12 table forks
- 12 tablespoons
- 12 table knives
- 11 dessert forks
- 12 soup spoons
- 12 dessert knives
